C. Open Forum

1. Cathleen, a community activist, addressed the rules of our humanitarian crisis and the procedures that are happening with those who are living in their trailers on the streets.
2. Rudy Ortega provided comment on recognizing that when harmful actions are part of an ongoing pattern, the stature of limitations does not necessarily begin with the first violation, but rather with the most recent act in that series; and although some may have suffered losses years ago, those losses are part of a continuous pattern of harassment and rights violations that have not ceased.

D. Adjournment

Chair David Cohen adjourned the Committee meeting at 2:07 p.m.
